

INVITATION FOR SEMINAR “STEAME SCHOOL OF THE FUTURE”

08TH December 2021

Prof. Ivan Apostolov high school

Prof.arh. Stancho Belkovski 1 Str., Mladost 1, 1797 Sofia

STEAME Lab, floor 3

You are cordially invited to take part in a seminar “STEAME school of the future” organized by Private Language school “Prof. Ivan Apostolov” school in its capacity of a partner in project STEAME: Guidelines for Developing and Implementing STEAME Schools”, coordinated by the Cyprus Mathematical Society.

The aim of the event is to raise awareness and drive a dialogue with relevant stakeholders and target groups such as: teachers, students, policy makers, educational experts, innovation experts, social organizations, education organizations, parents, etc. who are interested in the future of education.

The event is organized within the context and development of the STEAME project. During the event the main results and outcomes of the work of the partnership of six partners across 4 countries.

The seminar will take place on 8th December, starting at 1 pm – 5 pm EET, with sessions covering the following topics:

- ✓ Presentation of the STEAME model
- ✓ Workshop with student results of applying STEAME at “Prof. Ivan Apostolov” high school
- ✓ Demonstration of Learning and Creativity plans of teachers
- ✓ The future of education and schools
- ✓ Discussion and networking for experience sharing

The seminar is free but a registration is required, please send your confirmation to mkoleva@azbuki-school.bg

We are looking forward to meeting you on 8th December.